GANDILS TRY FOR BIG WIN TONIGHT

Need Three Games From Phi Mu Sigma to Lead Arcade League-Other Events.

GODDARD BEST PERFORMER

Torpedo Bowler Gets Scores of 124, 127, and 125-Columbia Lodge Leads Teams.

Vince Gulli and his Gandils will endeavor to wrest first place from the Phil Mu Sigma team in the Arcade League tonight. The fraternity bowlers are one game shead, with thirtyseven games won and eight lost, and need only two games out of three for

In their last meeting Phi Mu Sigma won two from the Gandils, but the latter are going stronger now than then. In their last time out the Gandils established a league record for set, and Nick Chaconas, the team's anchor man, tied the circuit record for individual set. His mark was 367. The teams will line-up tonight: Gandils-Gulli, Scharf, R. Rawlings, Mueller, and Chaconas. Phi Mu Sigma-Groff, McCambridge, Morgan, and Noack. Rouse is captain.

Special Match On.

While the bowling fans of Mt. Pleasant are watching the Gandils and Phi Mu Sigma fight it out, downtown followers of the game will gather at the Grand Central to see Tom Keane's Grand Centrals and the Southeast All-Stars roll the final block of their ten-game series. The Grand Centrals have a margin of 192 pins, gained in the opening section. The teams are rolling for a banquet, the date of which will be decided after tonight's rolling.

The Royals, who are tied with the Continentals for the leadership of the District League, will make an at-tempt to go ahead of their rivals when they meet the Garrisons at the Garrison alleys tonight. The Garrisons have a strong team, and should make matters interesting for the Andrew Goddard, of the Torpedo team, Navy Yard League, was a star performer last night. The veteran swept the boards for games of 124, 127, and 125, showing exceptional consistency as well as unusual skill.

In the way of consistency, Mack, of Goddard's opposing team, Radio, could have not done better. He rolled three consecutive scores of 112. Columbia Lodge, of the Masonic League, was easily the best team performer. With individual honors about even the quint knocked down 1,624 pins with a high game of 582. Center Market Café, of the Market men's League, also did well with games of 521, 503, and 562. Tassa having the best individual total of Anderson, of Southern Railway A.

A., obtained the biggest single string of 145. His set was 370. Lovering, of Dawson Lodge, Masonic League, led his team with the excellent set of
